

July 24, 2017

JOB IN PORT TARESA, KAMSAR (Guinea)

Compagnie de Bauxite et d'Alumine de Dian-Dian, SA (COBAD, SA) has awarded to SETH the construction works of the 116 meters-long Bauxite Export Jetty for barges with capacity up to 6,000DWT at Port Taresa (Kamsar) at Republic of Guinea.

The Contract Price is in the amount of 6 million euros (all materials provided by COBAD) and has a scheduled duration of 10 months.

The Scope of SETH's works under this contract include:

- Execution of Jetty foundations:
- The 73no. concrete socketed piles (Ø980mm // 33mm with 22 meters);
- The 53no. driven piles (Ø970mm // 29.5mm with 17.5 meters);
- Installation of the steel beams and welding of those beams to the piles;
- Installation of prefabricated concrete slabs.

The completion of the concrete slab, the installation of the fender system, bollards, cathodic protection system or the other works associated with the extension of the causeway are not included in SETH's scope of (those works being carried out directly by COBAD).

JOB IN PORT TARESA, KAMSAR (Guinea)

